

Hate speech and Freedom of Expression: How to deal with in the daily editorial work

Intensive Workshop PRISM Project - Exchanging Best Practices on Social Media Management among Journalists and Bloggers

Florence, 2nd July 2015

Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights Europe - via Ghibellina 12

10.00 – 10.45 Welcome address

Francesca Chiavacci – ARCI

Giovanni Maria Bellu – Associazione Carta di Roma

Matteo Biffoni – ANCI, Delegate on Immigration Policies

10.45 – 11.15 “Hate speech is everyone's responsibility”

Frank La Rue - Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights Europe

11.15 – 11.45 The legislative framework at National and EU level

Elena D'Angelo – UNICRI

11.45 – 12.15 Hate speech on female social network: how to respond, how to protect themselves.

Internet Bill of Rights as an educational tool for online relationships

Lorella Zanardo – activist, writer and trainer

12.15 – 13.15 Roundtable: practices inside editorial rooms

Nadia Ferrigo - La Stampa

Ricardo Gutierrez – European Federation of Journalists

Vicent Partal - VilaWeb

Iulia Rosu – Adevarul

13.15– 13.30 Q&A

In collaboration with Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights Europe, LSDI – Libertà di Stampa e Diritto all'Informazione and Cospe.
Under the patronage of Comune di Firenze.

For further information and accreditation: info@cartadiroma.org.

This workshop is recognised by Ordine dei Giornalisti, visit SIGeF platform for registration. Limited seats available.

